

Wine Spectator

CLOS FLORIDÈNE Graves 2010 Score: 90-93

This focused red delivers a pure beam of cherry and red currant fruit easily holding sway over mineral and sweet tobacco notes, with a very pure, fresh finish and lovely mouthfeel. —J.M. James Molesworth www.winespectator.com - Avril 2011

CHÂTEAU REYNON Cadillac Côtes de Bordeaux 2010 Score: 88-91

This has a lightly roasted plum and raspberry core, with a streak of firm chalk lending focus to the finish. A pure, minerally style. —J.M. James Molesworth www.winespectator.com - Avril 2011

CHÂTEAU HAURA Graves 2010 Score: 89-92

Nicely focused, with raspberry and plum notes laced with a hint of cherry pit. Tobacco and mineral are starting to show on the polished finish, which has nice length. —J.M. James Molesworth www.winespectator.com - Avril 2011

CHÂTEAU DOISY DAËNE Bordeaux White 2010 Score: 89-92

Still evolving, with lime, verbena and honeysuckle notes and a flash of melon rind on the finish. More backward than most, but shows clear potential. —J.M. James Molesworth www.winespectator.com - Avril 2011

CLOS FLORIDÈNE Graves White 2010 Score: 88-91

Lush but focused, with straw, creamed gooseberry and verbena notes gliding along, backed by a light butter hint on the finish. Nice length. —J.M. James Molesworth www.winespectator.com - Avril 2011

CHÂTEAU REYNON Bordeaux White 2010 Score: 88-91

Pretty, with notes of pear, tarragon and lime and a fresh, open finish. This has a gentle feel, but also nice purity and persistence. —J.M. James Molesworth www.winespectator.com - Avril 2011

CHÂTEAU DOISY DAËNE Barsac L'Extravagant 2010 Score: 94-97

Offers lots of sweet botrytis character, with graham, heather honey, fig and glazed pear notes, followed by an unctuous finish. Mouthfilling, with some serious power in reserve. The most backward 2010 Sauternes I've tasted so far. —J.M. James Molesworth www.winespectator.com - Avril 2011

CHÂTEAU DOISY DAËNE Barsac 2010 Score: 92-95

This has power in reserve, but relies more on its acidity, with juicy tangerine, clementine, pear and mango notes laced with a hint of green almond. The finish is long, pure and fresh. —J.M. James Molesworth www.winespectator.com - Avril 2011

CHÂTEAU CANTEGRIL Sauternes 2010 Score: 90-93

Quite juicy and primal, with sweet pear, candied green apple and green fig notes carried by a frankly sweet finish. This has a ways to go before it settles in. —J.M. James Molesworth www.winespectator.com - Avril 2011